Emmily Stephanie Odhiambo
Software Developer
+254 758 914 995
emmilysodhiambo@gmai.com
https://github.com/EmmilyOdhiambo/
https://www.linkedin.com/in/emmily-odhiambo/

Personal Statement

My interest in healthcare arose from seeing the challenges that members of my community experience such as limited access to healthcare facilities.Emmily aims to integrate her software skills to create responsive designs that will enable patients to communicate their health afflictions to their healthcare professions as well as maintaining their drug schedule.

Skills

- Competent in developing Mobile Applications using Kotlin and Android Studio.
- Ability to create web applications using HTML/CSS and JavaScript .
- Familiarity with frameworks such as Django, React and Node.js

Education
AkiraChix - codeHive
(January-2023-Present)
Diploma in Information Technology

Related Courses
Backend Development
- Capable of understanding the basic knowledge of Python.
- Able to construct responsive web applications using Python and Django as a tool and library.

Mobile Development
- capable of understanding the fundamentals of Kotlin, including Classes and Object-Oriented Programming.
- Capable of creating layouts and building mobile apps in Android Studio.

Frontend Development
- Able to use DOM in JavaScript to dynamically access and update the content, structure, and style of a web page application.

- Skilled on Fetching Data and APIs to retrieve data from external sources such as web servers and databases

UI/UX Design
- Familiar with Adobe Photoshop for graphic editing to manipulate UI design visual elements.
- Familiar with Adobe Illustrator which creates icons, illustrations, and other graphical elements in UI design.

Projects
Reference

Paul Odero
Software Engineering Manager at Microsoft
paulodero@gmail.com

Lindah Kamau
Managing Director & Co-Founder at Akirachix
lindakamau@gmail.com